

POLICE RECORD CHECK AGENCY FACT SHEET

POLICE RECORD CHECKS FOR EMPLOYMENT OR VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Police Record Checks are performed only upon the written consent of the applicant.

The agency plays an integral role in the initial stages of the hiring process. Even before an individual applies for a Police Record Check the agency should:

- (a) Complete an initial review for suitability and be considering the individual for an employment or volunteer opportunity.
- (b) Understand its obligation under the Human Rights Code with respect to evaluation, hiring and training volunteers or employees and what constitutes a bona fide reason for refusing to hire any individual or volunteer.
- (c) Determine that if a Vulnerable Sector Check is required, it is done so only for the purpose of assisting the Agency to determine the suitability of potential candidates for employment and/or volunteer duties responsible for the well-being of persons who, because of their age, disability or other circumstances are at a greater risk than the general population.

For further information on selecting employees or volunteers refer to Volunteer Canada 2012 Edition of The Screening Handbook at:

By performing a Police Record Check, Barrie Police Service (the Service) is in no way making a recommendation on the suitability of the applicant for the position nor should the agency consider the existence of information to mean a compulsory disqualification of the individual. It is important to note that information contained within a Police Record Check is based upon information provided by the applicant and the Service cannot guarantee it will identify all information pertaining to the individual.

Verification of Criminal Record

There are two methods for verification of a Criminal Record; either through the submission of fingerprints or by (self) declaration. Verification of a Criminal Record is a process where the applicant may declare their adult criminal record convictions to the police service.

Applicants are NOT required to declare:

- A conviction for which the applicant has received a record suspension.
- A conviction where the applicant was a “young person” under the YCJA.
- Absolute or Conditional Discharges.
- Any offences for which the applicant was not convicted.
- Provincial or municipal offences.
- Any charges dealt with outside of Canada.

The Service will confirm if the information matches a criminal record contained within the RCMP National Repository of Criminal Records. If the Service is not satisfied that the applicants declared criminal record information is a match to a Criminal Record held at the repository, fingerprints are required.

Requirement for Fingerprints

Criminal Record:

If the police service requires fingerprints or is not satisfied that the applicants (self) declaration is a match to a criminal record held at the RCMP National Repository of Criminal Records, fingerprints must be submitted to the RCMP.

Vulnerable Sector:

If the applicant is being considered to work in a volunteer or employment position where they will be in a position of authority and trust relative to vulnerable persons, they may be required to submit fingerprints to verify whether there is a criminal record including the existence of any sex offences with a record suspension contained within the RCMP National Repository of Criminal Records.

Release of Completed Police Record Check

Criminal Record Check and Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check

The Service will provide the results of a completed Criminal Record Check and Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check to the applicant only.

It is the choice of the applicant to decide whether he/she wants to share the results of the Police Record Check with the requesting agency. The role of the Service is to provide the applicant with the results of the Police Record Check. The agency is responsible for determining the suitability of the applicant for the position. The result of any Police Record Check is just one component of the information available to and evaluated by the agency.

Vulnerable Sector Check

The Service will complete a Vulnerable Sector Check based on the applicant's name and date of birth, as well as, gender and date of birth. If no record is found, a completed Police Vulnerable Sector Check will be provided to the applicant.

If the Vulnerable Sector Search is inconclusive a fingerprint based search will be required. If the RCMP confirms that the applicant has a sex offence with a record suspension, the information will be forwarded to the Minister of Public Safety to authorize disclosure of all or part of the information contained in the file. When the information is authorized for disclosure by the Minister, the criminal record associated with the applicant's fingerprints will be returned to the "Service" and will include the sexual offence with a record suspension information. At this point the Service will be required to obtain the applicant's consent in writing for disclosure of the record(s). When the applicant has signed the form giving consent to release the record(s) the Service must forward the information to the requesting agency (employer or volunteer agency).

If the applicant chooses not to disclose their record(s) the Service will contact the requesting agency in writing indicating that the Service was unable to complete the Vulnerable Sector Check.

You may also refer to the (name of Police Service) website at (website address) for further information regarding the Police Check process.

Youth Records

PRC's will only be conducted for paid or unpaid positions with the federal, provincial or municipal government. This is because non-government agencies are not authorized to receive any results. To require applicants to apply and pay for a PRC when no results will be disclosed is not in the best interest of applicants, the police service and the community.

For government employers:

PRC's with disclosable youth records will be mailed directly to you by the police service. Please be sure to provide the youth with this information prior to having the youth apply for a PRC.
